SENIOR BENEFITS

Putting people back into the people business

Lisa Monserud

I am originally from Eau Claire, Wisconsin. I currently reside in Ramsey with my husband Scott. We love to spend time with our granddaughter Elena and our three children, Autumn, Bodhy, and Zakary, as well as our two miniature dachshunds, Abbee and Lug. I love the sunshine; the beach happens to be my happy place and I am a certified scuba diver. I also love to be outside with my flowers, I have over 150 different kinds of flowers around my yard.

With a background in finance and business, I am an organized individual who is an excellent multitasker. With a caring heart and a love for God, I have a divine passion to help others. I am a compassionate listener and would love to listen to your story to find what products are best suited for you.

When you first enroll in Medicare and during certain times of the year, you can choose how you get your Medicare coverage. There are 2 main ways to get Medicare:

Original Medicare

- Original Medicare includes Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance) and Part B (Medical Insurance).
- If you want drug coverage, you can join a separate Part D plan.
- To help pay your out-of-pocket costs in Original Medicare (like your 20% coinsurance), you can also shop for and buy supplemental coverage.
- Can use any doctor or hospital that takes Medicare, anywhere in the U.S.

You can add:

You can also add:

Some examples include coverage from a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) policy, or coverage from a former employer or union.

Medicare Advantage

also known as Part C

- Medicare Advantage is an “all in one” alternative to Original Medicare. These “bundled” plans include Part A, Part B, and usually Part D.
- Plans may have lower out-of-pocket costs than Original Medicare.
- In most cases, you’ll need to use doctors who are in the plan’s network.
- Most plans offer extra benefits that Original Medicare doesn’t cover—like vision, hearing, dental, and more.
